

We are very pleased to announce that Aviva GmbH is now a member of the Melchers Group of Companies. Effective June 1, 2017, Melchers has acquired the majority shares in Aviva GmbH.

Aviva continues to operate as an independent business unit under the leadership of Mr Claus Braatz who has led the company since inception; he has more than 20 years of experience in the Airline Supply Industry.

Marc Friedrich, Managing Director of Melchers Techimport GmbH, will join the Board of Directors of Aviva as Managing Director to run the company together with Mr. Claus Braatz.

Melchers Group considers this a strategic acquisition to expand the group's activities into the growing global travel industry. Aviva will grow organically while having access to the organisation and global infrastructure of the Melchers Group, specifically in Europe and Asia.

Aviva supplies Inflight Service Products for passenger's comfort to airlines predominantly in the Middle East region as well as Europe and parts of Africa. Reputable Airlines such as Emirates, Saudia Airlines, Kuwait Airways and Qatar Airlines as well as TAP Air Portugal and others trust Aviva to provide parts of their First Class, Business Class and Economy Class service equipment. The product range comprises of products for food service equipment (meal tray settings, glassware, cutlery, porcelain, napkins & table cloths, etc), comfort items (blankets, headrest covers, Amenity Kits, headphones, etc) as well as galley equipment and promotional items.

For further enquiries, please contact us at any time:

Mr. Marc Friedrich, marc.f@aviva.aero

Mr. Claus Braatz, claus.b@aviva.aero